through the eyes of a tiger

EXCELLENCE is the keyword of academic life. To achieve this plateau, one must strive unceasingly toward the ever eluding prize called PERFECTION.

every collegian must be his own keeper, and he must consider members of the staff, faculty, and administration as the wise nestors who guide him in his odyssey toward his baccalaureate degree the voyage is not always tranquil or easy as one travels in quest of his degree. sometimes problems arise, from the depths of many fanthams, from seas deceptively calm, to plague the traveler.

sometimes it is the endless night of study . . .

... sometimes it
is the harried pace
of travel to and
from the hallowed
halls of learning, the hustle and hassle of
the registration lines

... and sometimes
the suspicion that
assaults his stomach
as he waits for his lunch ...

... the apprehension with which he anticipates the posting of quarter grades, or the turbulence of life in peacock or lester or any other dormitory, any student who has matriculated here at savannah state college has experienced at least one such agony.

only the joys of friendships and . . .

. . . the satisfaction or really learning something real and useful keep him moving toward his goal.

foreword

the wealth with which the tiger is endowed here at the college by the sea, bejeweled with intellectual, emotional, and spiritual development, grants him preparation for the full, rich life that awaits him, and a treasure chest full of the fortitude and skill with which he can adorn a life not so full or rich.

a good tiger stalks his prey. at savannah state college, he can consume such toothsome delights as elementary and secondary education, physical education, accounting, business education, business administration, economics, secretarial science, history, english, music, art, foreign language, biology, chemistry, physics, mathematics, medical technology, naval science, social science, sociology, social work, criminal justice, drafting, designing, tailoring, dietetics, electronics, engineering technology, and world religions. with a diet of this magnitude and diversity, one can be made ready to accept the challenge in all facets of life.

here at savannah state college, education is not a myth, but a reality, beautiful and true. this is the "ivy league" as seen through the eyes of a tiger.

SAVANNAH STATE COLLEGE
STATE COLLEGE BRANCH
SAVANNAH, GEORGIA 31404

OFFICE OF
THE PRESIDENT

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It is my sincere hope that the series of photographs recorded here, of the many and varied activities that encompass college life and work, will become a part of your treasured memoirs of your years in pursuit of academic excellence at Savannah State College. Also, fond memories of the relationships established with members of the faculty and staff, and your peers, hopefully, will serve as an incentive to go forward with renewed enthusiasm as you depart from this place to enter the many fields of endeavor in the professional world.

May all of your dreams and aspirations be fulfilled, and "LUX ET VERITAS," translated LIGHT AND TRUTH, serve as a beacon to guide you in the years ahead.

Prince A. Jackson, Jr.
President
